CHANGE OF TRADE MARK.

THE L. & R. THE STAR.

Ammoniated Soluble Superphosphate | Ammoniated Soluble Superphosphate

THE STAR AMMONIATED SOLUBLE SUPER PHOSPHATE, having gained on its own merits, the greatest reputation of any Fertilizer ever sold in the United States,—Other manufacturers, are using the trade mark of the "STAR," for their articles, much inferior in quality, and that cost 100 per cent less, in order to make money for themselves, regardless of the interest of the poor farmer. The manufacturers of the original "STAR," with ourselves have determined, in order to prevent the great impositions, now being practiced in some parts of the United States, and to save the name of that formerly known as the "STAR" to change the trade mark to L. & R. with the above cut, which has been duly patented Next Season each sack will contain precisely the same Fertilizer as we sold last season, but will be stamped with the new trade mark and the words will be printed on the back of each sack with the analysis. We refer to all farmers who have used the STAR as to the reputation and value of the article as a Fertilizer.

FORMERLY THE STAR AMMONIATED

SOLUBLE

——"Caromette" is what they call it now.

——See that your name is properly registered.

——Trade was exceedingly dull in the city yesterday.

——Don't forget to see that you are registered all right.

——Cotton pickers are still in demand. Farmers are on the look out to employ.

——We are sorry to announce that the Richings English opera troupe will not visit us this winter.

——A large majority of the visitors from this city to the Presbyterian Synod, at Fayetteville, have returned.

——The Trustees of the Graded School hold a meeting this afternoon, at 4:30 o'clock in the law office of Battle & Mordecai.

——The Grand Lodge of the Masonic fraternity of this State convenes, in this city, the first Tuesday in December. A large attendance is expected.

——Each recitation room of the Graded School has been properly heated for the winter. This is mainly owing to the exertions of Col. A. W. Shaffer.

——The winter term of the United States Circuit Court begins in this city on the last Monday in next month. The list of jurors has already been drawn.

——The colored Tilden and Vance Club held their regular weekly meeting last evening at Metropolitan Hall. The meeting was a large one, taking the rain into consideration. The names of several new members were added to the roll.

——The report of the State Treasurer is nearly completed. It will give, we learn, in detail unusually interesting tables for the two last fiscal years, besides containing valuable suggestions in reference to the future operations of the department. Treasurer Jenkins will also make some suggestions in regard to the funding act.

Speaking at House's Creek.

Yesterday the county candidates met at Hayes' Store, House's Creek Township. Mr. J. Eaton Bledsoe, as he delights to write himself, led off in his usual boy-stood-on-the burning-deck style, getting some applause from the negro part of the audience. He was followed by H. C. Olive, one of the Democratic nominees for the lower house of the Legislature, who made an able and patriotic speech.

Mr. M. G. Todd, the newly nominated Republican, managed to announce himself in language sufficiently grammatical to be understood by the educated part of the crowd. Messrs. Whitley, Snow, Page and Jones were all present and made excellent speeches. "Honest" Bob Wynne made his talk, but cut and run before Mr. Snow had an opportunity to reply. Mr. Thomas Purnell spoke about almost everything save his connection with the K. K. K. in Forsythe county. Despite the inclemency of the weather the crowd was a large one and held together until the close of the last speech.

Settling Up.

The employes of the North Carolina Agricultural Society thronged the Secretary's office yesterday and were duly settled with by Capt. Denson, by order on the Treasurer, P. A. Wiley, Esq, who will promptly pay them Wednesday. Every one seemed satisfied with their compensation. The list of awards are now being prepared and the fortunate ones who obtain premiums will receive their gifts in cash, or in valuable goods, at an early day. The fair has been a success, and those interested are stimulated to make the next one a still greater triumph. Any information relative to the premiums, &c., can be obtained by calling at the office of the Secretary, over Briggs' store.

HOLDEN'S CONFESSION.

The Statements of Rev. C. T. Bailey Confirmed.

WHO KILLED STEPHENS?

THAT COIL OF ROPE.

The Holden-Kirk War Policy.

Rev. Thos. W. Babb, of Gates county, the author of the following card is one of the most brilliant and promising ministers among the Baptists of eastern North Carolina. He is a self-made man, of unblemished reputation and one of the most popular of all the ministers of the Chowan Association, by far the largest and most influential body of Baptists in the State. A few months ago he was called to the pastorate of the Baptist Church in Newbern, but was unable to accept. The Rev. Mr. Bailey knows nothing of the publication of this card, being absent from the city. Mr. Babb gives it to the public in the interest of justice and truth Here is what Mr. Babb says:

Editor of Raleigh News:

I was introduced to Gov. Holden on the cars between Raleigh and Fayetteville, on my way to the Baptist State Convention, (Nov. 1872,) and had a very pleasant conversation with him. I was pleased with him and he seemed to be pleased with me. During the session of the Convention he invited me to dine with him at Judge Buxton's, which I did. We walked from the church to Judge Buxton's residence, took dinner and returned in a carriage to the church.

During most of this time the topic of conversation was the political record of Gov. Holden, of which he spoke freely, and I thought frankly. He confessed his regret for having allowed the interests of his party to sway his better judgment, and declared that he was forever done with politics. He said that the Kirk war was forced upon him by unwise and unsafe counsellors; that Kirk was not the man of his choice, but came so recommended that he could do nothing but appoint him to the command of the troops; that the whole thing was against his better judgment, and he regretted that he had acted as a partisan and not as a christian.

He said the murder of Stephens was for political effect, and his murderers were thought to be of his own party. He spoke of the rope found on the neck of the murdered man, and the finding of the coil from which it was cut as likely to elicit evidence unfavorable to parties who were supposed to be friends of Stephens.

THOS. W. BABB
Gatesville, N. C., Oct. 18, '76.

Antediluvian.

Benjamin Johnson lives in Chatham county. He has lived there for the last one hundred and fifteen years. He was a plow boy while the Revolutionary war was going on. He plows still, and speaks confidently of attending the next Centennial at Philadelphia. Mr. Johnson being a white man, and a good Democrat, of course makes no pretension of having been General Washington's body servant; in fact, he says that he never saw that individual in the whole course of his life. Oakland township, where Mr. Johnson resides, is famous for being a hard country to die in, for in several localities of that territory murder has been necessary in order to obtain a nucleus upon which to build up a respectable graveyard population. We hope that our aged friend will be alive November 1976, so that he may be able to tell the good people of the Oakland neighborhood what a stunning majority Tilden and Vance got in 1876.

Movements of Cotton in Raleigh.

We omitted in our last issue to give our regular weekly report of our cotton market, and we now give the report up to Friday night, the 20th:

The receipts for the week ending that date, 2,815 bales; receipts same time last year, 3,016; decrease in receipts for week this year, 201. Whole receipts from September 1st to October 20th, 12,637 bales; whole receipts same time last year, 12,178; increase in receipts this year to date 459.

The market was less buoyant during the week owing to the depression of the New York and other markets, but our market closed at 10 to 10¼ cents for middlings. We note that the Fayetteville market closed same day at 9½ to 9¾ for middlings, though the freight to New York is the same as from our city.

Workingmen! Look to your interests and save doctor bills by using Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

The Presbyterian Synod.

The Synod of the Presbyterian Church of North Carolina convened in Fayetteville on Wednesday last, 18th inst., at 7½ o'clock P. M. This body represents 196 churches in various parts of the State and 605 in its connection, 103 ministers and 17,000 communicants.

The opening sermon was preached by Rev. J. Rumple, of Salisbury, the last Moderator.

The Rev. M. McQueen, of Fayetteville Presbytery, was elected Moderator, and Rev. D E. Jordan, of Orange Presbytery, and R. W. Hamilton, of Concord Presbytery, were elected temporary Clerks to assist Rev. Jacob Doll, Stated Clerk.

A deeply interesting report was submitted by Rev. J. Rumple, of Concord Presbytery, on the relative progress and increase of the Presbyterian Church in the State.

The Rev. R Z. Johnston, of Mecklenburg Presbytery, the Synodical Agent of Foreign Missions, made a full and interesting report, and was followed in an able and most instructive speech on the general subject of Foreign Missions by Rev. J. Leighton Wilson, D. D., Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions for the Southern Presbyterian Church.

The annual report on sustentation was made by Rev. H. G. Hill, of Fayetteville; on education, by Rev. L McKinnon, of Concord; on publication, by Rev. F. H. Johnston, of Winston; on Sabbath schools, by Rev. William S. Lacy, of Jonesboro.

These reports, as well as those of the different Presbyteries, showed cause for great encouragement and thanksgiving that the church is growing and engaged in important enterprises notwithstanding the depression of the times.

Rev. H. H. Banks, agent of Davidson College, addressed the Synod relative to the completion of the proposed endowment of the college. He showed the faculty to be fully manned by seven able professors, a high grade of scholarship and morals, doing a work not inferior to the best colleges in our land.

Rev R L. Dabney, D. D., Professor of Union Theological Seminary, in Virginia, made an interesting statement of the great work being done by this venerable "School of the Prophets," where there are a large number of young men preparing for the gospel ministry. The Synod was largely attended by both delegation and, visitors, all of whom were most hospitally entertained by the good people of Fayetteville. Most able and eloquent sermons were preached by Revs. H. T. Dornall, J. T Wharey, C M. Payne and Drs. J. H. Smith, C. R. Vaughan, R. L. Dabney and Jos. R. Wilson and others. The Synod adjourned on Saturday night to meet in the Second Presbyterian church in Charlotte in October 1877.

Gambling Den Broken Up.

Sunday morning Officers Scales, Bryant and Parham raided on a negro gambling den and succeeded in nabbing all of the parties. The den was located in that delectable locality known as Winter's Row, in the house occupied by one Ben. Manly, a very tight colored wad. We are sorry to say that one white man was in the gang. His name we suppress at the request of a number of gentleman of the typographical fraternity, who interest themselves in his behalfon the account of a very near and excellent relative. The trial took place before his Honor, Mayor Manly, Sunday morning, a short time after the arrest took place. The parties were Alfred Flowers, John Peck, James Pettiway, Elisha Perry, and the white man above alluded to. A fine of $5, and $2.25 cost, was imposed all around or 30 days in jail. All paid up but Perry and Flowers, whose impecuniosity caused them to go up for the 30 days. Officers Scales, Bryant and Parham deserve great credit for breaking up this disreputable den. It is said that a great deal of barefaced swindling has been perpetrated there.

A Live Farmer.

Jas. Norwood, Esq., exhibited at our recent fair 20 sheep, comprising Cotswolds, Leicester and South Downs, and takes the awards on all. One of them, for the best exhibit of sheep, is a Merino buck, valued at $100. He also takes two prizes on Berkshires, three prizes on blooded horses, besides numerous others.

He had on exhibition a half-sister of the famous race horse, Ten Broeck, who has beaten old Lexington's fast time of 7:19¾ by 4 seconds. We need a few more Norwoods.

Mr. Norwood is a liberal, earnest friend of the State Agricultural Society.

Warren All Right.

A correspondent writes us from Warren county as follows: "Old Warren, the mother of Macon and Bragg, is alive with enthusiasm for Vance and Jarvis. We expect to make a gain of one hundred for the Conservative party over the Merrimon vote."

Acknowledgments of Donations to the University of N. C.

President Battle has set apart a large room at the University as a 'Farmer's Hall," where he will collect specimens of agricultural implements to be used as models in class instruction.

The following donations have already been received:

From E. H. Plummer, Petersburg, Va., 2 plows, (Farmer's Friend,) in addition to the eight heretofore given, making a series of 10 plows of different sizes and kinds. From Messrs. Belcher & Taylor, of Chicopee Falls, Mass., one steel plow, 1 straw cutter, 1 Ridge plow.

Messrs. W. C. & A. B. Stronach, of this city, have likewise donated to the University one ton of fertilizers, viz: 5 bags Bradley's Superphosphate, 2 bags Sea Fowl Guano, and 3 bags Popplein.

A. C. Saunders, of this city, has contributed 2 bags Yearsley's Rawbone Superphosphate, and 2 bags Star. These fertilizers are to be used on the lands of the University. We think the University is proceeding in the right direction in providing for the practical instruction of its students in agricultural matters. It is an excellent way to teach them the principle of plows, &c., by showing them specimens of the most approved patterns, to the end that they may learn the proper curves, line of draft, &c. We hope the leading manufacturers and dealers will generously make the collection in Farmer's Hall a complete exhibit of the best agricultural implements in use.

Capsized on the Railroad.

Lat Saturday afternoon Geo. Lee, colored, left this city with a lot of provisions on his shoulder and a hide full of whisky for his home near Cary. He was walking along the track of the North Carolina Railroad when the westward bound train on the Raleigh & Augusta Air-Line Railroad came along in the neighborhood of the platform of the black lead mines, four miles from this city. Whisky had so obfusticated George that he got it into his head that the train was coming on the track he was walking on so he stepped over to the Raleigh & Augusta track just in time to be knocked heels over head by the plow of the engine. The train was at once stopped and it was ascertained that the only harm resulting was that George had been frightened into a state of undoubted sobriety. The joke of the matter, if joke there be in it, was that the stricken man gave no thought to the safety of his bag of provisions, but clung with a death grip to quart tickler of whisky.

A Returned Ku-Klux.

In looking over the register of the Yarborough House last evening the name of W. H. Gary, K. K. K., stood out in bold relief. Upon inquiring we learned that Mr. Gary, who is a citizen of Sampson county, was convicted in the early part of 1871, in the United States Circuit Court, in this city, of the hanging of the negro Youngblood. It will be remembered that Youngblood shot and killed a man in the upper edge of Sampson county, who was supposed to have been the captain of a klan, and for this he was taken one night from a steamboat plying between Fayetteville and Wilmington and hanged to a tree on the river bank, midway between these two places. Several were arrested on the charge of this crime, and among the number was this man Gary, who received a sentence of five years in the Albany, N. Y, penitentiary. He has served out his time and is now on his way home. He says that the discipline of the Albany prison is terribly severe, the cat-o'-nine-tails being lavishly used on slight provocation. A man by the name of Draughon, from the same county, was convicted of complicity in the same crime, and received a sentence of seven years, so he is booked for a sojourn of two more years in that prison.

An Old Landmark Gone.

The stables on the premises of Jeff. Fisher, Esq, Hargett street, have been torn down. In other days they were called Clark's stables, and were used for the stage horses that plied between this place and Hillsboro and Fayetteville. They dated back beyond the memory of the "oldest inhabitant." They are now numbered with the things that were. They have been taken down to make room for a handsome residence which Mr. Fisher designs, we learn, erecting. We gladly hail all improvements, but it has a saddening effect to see these old landmarks swept away.

A Card to the Public.

I understand a slanderous charge will appear in the Constitution of this morning against me. Whether it does or not, I shall speak at Metropolitan Hall, or at the Court House, to night at 7½ o'clock, and if the article does appear I shall answer it in full and notice the author of it.

H. L. KEITH,
Independent candidate for the Legislature.

A STRAW.

The Soldiers For Tilden!

[Special correspondence to Raleigh News.]

CHARLOTTE, Oct. 22d 1876.

Two hundred United States soldiers passed through this city this morning, and two hundred and fifty this afternoon, for South Carolina. A vote was taken of the latter detachment (three batteries) between Greensboro and Charlotte, and of the 250 only 27 voted for Hayes.—They left this afternoon with three cheers for Tilden and Hendricks.

Attention Democrats!

The Chairman of the Democratic Township Executive Committee, J. A. Harris, Esq., calls upon all Democrats and Conservatives to look after their names on the registration books. The [illegible] close on November 6th at [illegible]. The following are the pla[illegible] registering and voting:

1st. Ward—Registering place, Alfred Upch[illegible] coach shop, Hargett street; vot[illegible]e, Baptist Grove. Registrar, [illegible]s Scarlett.

2nd. Ward—Registering place, Jenkins' workshop; voting place, school house near city cemetry.—Registrar, R. W. Taylor.

3rd. Ward—Registering place, Court House; voting place, Court House. Registrar, R. B. Seawell.

4th. Ward—Registering place, Gas House; voting place, Hargett street school house. Registrar, Thomas Belvin.

5th. Ward—Registering place, W. M. Love's, Hillsboro street, near the railroad bridge; voting place, A. L. Moore's old store, southwest corner of the Institute for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind. Registrar, W. M. Love.

Township Box—Registering place, Court House; voting place, Court House. Registrar, J. M. Carver.

The Chairman of the Township Committee earnestly urges all to look after this matter of registration.

Personal.

J. H. Jones, an English gentleman who has large mining interests on Deep River, is at the National.

O. H. Dockery and Blow-your-horn Billy Smith passed through here yesterday enroute east.

E. J. Parrish, the well known Durham tobacco warehouse man, is in the city.

We are glad to learn that Mrs. Robert Redford, who has been ill so long, has greatly improved.

I. F. Dortch, Esq., the Democratic Senatorial candidate in Wayne, is in the city.

Major J. W. Scott, of Chatham, paid our sanctum a pleasant visit yesterday morning. He is enroute to the Centennial.

L. C. Jones, Esq., of Fayetteville, President of the Western Railroad Company, was in the city yesterday.

Geo. V. Strong, Esq., left yesterday to attend the Wayne county Superior Court. He will probably be heard from on the stump in that region.

Hon. W. N. H. Smith has gone to Hertford county. Mr. Smith has a number of appointments in that section for the campaign. As an eloquent and forcible speaker Mr. Smith has no superior in the State.

Tilden and Vance Flag-Pole.

Thursday afternoon the monster Tilden and Vance flag-pole, corner of Martin and Fayetteville streets, opposite Citizen's National Bank, will be erected. Music, speeches and a general good time will be had. In the evening the Young Men's Tilden and Vance Club will attend in a body the meeting of the Mechanic's Club, which is to be addressed by C. M. Busbee, Esq., at Metropolitan Hall. The pole raising takes place under the auspices of the Young Men's Tilden and Vance Club, and a handsome flag has been procured to float from the lofty summit.

Register.

We fear that our people are inclined to be neglectful of this duty, and there is some misunderstanding in regard to the books to be used. We hear that a number of our citizens are under the impression that they will vote according to the books used at the last municipal election. This, we are informed, is not so. The registration for the Convention election will be the one used in November. Parties in the city who have changed their residence, from ward to ward, had better see that their names are on the book of the ward in which they will vote next month. This is a duty which should not be neglected.

REV. MR. BAILEY'S statement of Gov. Holden's confession is confirmed by Rev Thos. W. Babb, of Gates county. See our local page.

THE Constitutional Convention of 1875 was called by white men. Will men of our race aid the colored people in voting down its work?

THE negroes will vote in solid mass against the constitutional amendments. Will white men unite with them to resist these wise and beneficent changes?

THE attention of the people of the State is called to an article on "Special Tax Bonds," furnished us by one who knows whereof he writes, and published in to-day's paper.

GOV. HOLDEN'S ATTACK ON GOV. VANCE.

In a card to the public, printed in the Constitution of October 20, ex-Gov. William W. Holden undertakes to assail the integrity of Gov. Vance The temerity of this attack and the bungling manner in which it is made is only exceeded by the venom which breathes through it, like slander's own breath. But it is not personal spleen alone which animates the author. He has written in pursuance of the wofully mistaken policy of the Republican party of North Carolina to elect Settle by attempting to make men believe that Zebulon B. Vance the beloved of the people, is a monster of cruelty and iniquity. A more futile effort was never made, and already it begins to recoil with disastrous effect upon the heads of those reckless calumniators who began it and are carrying it on.

Mr. Holden, with a disregard of truth which astounds even those familiar with his record in the past, asserts that Governor Vance "had in his hands hundreds of thousands of dollars in gold, and he has thus far, after a lapse of eleven years, given no account of it." Here is a specific statement, by which Mr. Holden seeks to convey the false impression that Gov. Vance had in his possession at the close of the war a large sum of money belonging to the State which he, in violation of his duty, failed to account for.

We might pronounce this statement a misrepresentation of the grossest nature, but it is unnecessary to do so, as the writer himself by other statements contradicts himself and gives the lie to his own words. For he goes on to say—

When I came into office in 1865, I found that one Flanner, steward on the Advance, had in his possession forty thousand dollars in gold of the State's money, but he was in Europe, and could not be reached. Treasurer Worth and myself made strenuous efforts to force Flanner to pay over this money, but we could not get a dollar of it. I even inquired as to his real estate in Wilmington, intending to confiscate it for this debt, but I found that he had conveyed all his property to his brother in Newbern.

In one breath he tells the public that the blockade fund was in Vance's hands, unaccounted for; in the next breath, he says that it was in Flanner's possession, and that he was in Europe, and could not be reached. If Mr. Holden tells the truth about Flanner, with whose transactions he seems very well acquainted although he has feigned ignorance of them, Gov. Vance stands completely exonerated of Holden's charge by Holden's own statements Gov. Vance and Mr. Flanner could not possibly have had in their possession at one and the same time the thousands of dollars spoken of, as the Atlantic Ocean separated the two men, one being in Paris and the other in prison at Washington, when the collapse of the Confederacy came.

"O what a tangled web we weave,
When once we practice to deceive."

Mr. Holden himself clears Gov. Vance of even the shadow of suspicion by such expressions as these: "I do not charge him with treachery, or depravity, or corruption, while he was Governor"—"Far be it from me to call him a rogue, or to charge that he stole those funds, (blockade funds)—"I do not charge him with theft or corruption." In the face of these direct, pointed, unequivocal declarations, Mr. Holden attempts by sly insinuations to create impressions which he knows to be false. Is that honest? Is that manly? Is that christian?

Mr. Holden knows the facts of the case, as well as we do; and that is the reason why he don't dare charge corruption on Governor Vance. He knows that Mr. Flanner was at the time of the capture of the "Advance," just before the close of the war, her consignee and agent abroad. He knows that Flanner never accounted to Gov. Vance for a dollar of the large sum which he had in possession at the time of the surrender. And he knows that Gov. Vance is in no way responsible for that lost fund. And Gov. Holden's attempt to put Flanner's defalcation on Gov. Vance's shoulders, is an unwarranted, unpardonable effort to blacken the name of one whom he knows to be innocent.

When Gov. Holden's paper, the Constitution, asked Gov. Vance the question, "Have you since the surrender received from England or France any sum of money, which you have appropriated to your private use? If yes, how much did you receive?"—he must have known the answer to it. But, that he may not have even the excuse for feigning ignorance, we will repeat the facts of the case, as accurately stated by our esteemed cotemporary, the Sentinel:

During the career of the Advance it was often suggested to Governor Vance by friends familiar with the fact that the executive allowance in Confederate money was inadequate to the family wants of the Governor to allow the Advance to take out some cotton on his own private account. Governor Vance from first to last persistently declined to make such use of the State's steamer to his own private advantage.

Toward the close of the war, Mr. Alexander Collie, of England, through whom the Advance was purchased for the State, seeing that the Governor would take no private advantage of the State steamer, invited him to avail himself of his ships, four of which were in Wilmington at one time. Finally Mr. Collie's vessels took out on private account of Zebulon B Vance some fifteen bales of cotton.

Some time after the close of the war Mr. Collie notified Governor Vance that the net proceeds of his cotton, about three thousand dollars in gold, was standing to his credit on the books of his firm in England, and that he, Governor Vance could obtain the amount on application to Collie's New York agents, Dennis Town & Co.

This was in the latter part of the summer or early in the fall of 1865. This fund Governor Vance drew against on the New York house from time to time as his necessities required, and it was this money on which Governor Vance supported himself and family for that period succeeding the war during which he was, by the proscription of the United States Government, prohibited from engaging in the practice of his profession or any other business for the support of his family.

Gov. Vance is the same noble man that he was in 1862, when Gov. Holden spoke so loud in his praise, as is shown by the following extract from the Standard of August 13, 1862:

"Col. Vance, in his letter consenting to the use of his name for Governor, said, 'I shall be content with the people's will. Let them speak.' They have spoken in a voice of thunder, commanding party strifes to be allayed, and calling the HERO, PATRIOT and STATESMAN, Zebulon Baird Vance, to the highest office in their gift."

ELECTORAL CANVASS, FOURTH CONGRESSIONL DISTRICT.

Fabius H. Busbee, Democratic candidate for elector in the Fourth Congressional District, began his canvass on yesterday at Rocky Mount, Nash county. He speaks to-day at Nashville, and on Thursday at Hare's Store, Johnston county. The rest of his appointments appear elsewhere in to-day's paper.

Mr. Busbee announces that "time will be divided with Mr. Strayhorn, the Republican candidate, if he is present." We may infer from this that Mr. Strayhorn declined to make a joint canvass with Mr. Busbee, who is ready and most willing to meet his competitor on the stump anywhere in the district. There is nothing a follower of the Mortons, Blaines and Kilpatricks hates so much now-a-days as "dividing time" with bold and enthusiastic advocates of reform, retrenchment and reconciliation.

Mr. Busbee will doubtless make a brilliant and effective canvass. A writer in the Salisbury Examiner happily designates him as "the young silver-tongued orator." Since the opening of the campaign he has won an enviable reputation as an eloquent speaker, and we are sure he will do fine service for the cause in the canvass which he is now making of this district.

Mr. Busbee is fully awake to the momentous issues involved in this contest. As far back as 1868, when a Chapel Hill graduate, he stood "the representative of the last regular senior class, the last valedictorian of seventy years," he warned us that the sacred landmarks of civil liberty stood "in imminent danger of being submerged in the swelling tide of legislative despotism," and, even then, he plead for the blessed cause of reconciliation in language that will not soon be forgotten.

THE ELECTION LAWS.

The address of the State Democratic Conservative Committee, which we published last Wednesday, contains most valuable instruction in regard to the coming election. Our friends throughout the State should carefully observe the directions contained in it, and heed its good advice. The rights and duties of voters and of the managers of the elections is clearly set forth.

Let every voter bear in mind that he can call upon the constituted authorities for protection against any one who attempts to intimidate him; that no one has a right to inspect his ballot; that the federal supervisors have no right to interfere with the ballot-boxes for the State officers, members of the General Assembly, county officers and the Constitutional Amendments; and that the supervisors are not above the criminal law of North Carolina, as is claimed in "the instructions to supervisors" issued by the chief supervisor of this district.

We would urge every citizen to obey the call of the committee "to preserve and maintain the peace on the day of election; and to that end, exercise the utmost forbearance, and thus deprive the unscrupulous of even a pretext for creating a disturbance and enabling partizan federal officials to wrest from the people the signal victory we feel confident they will achieve."

THE AMENDMENTS.

It is well known that there are many serious objections to the Canby Constitution—objections which are patent to every one who has the real interest of the State at heart. Who is so ignorant of the operations of this instrument but knows that it increases public expenses by the useless multiplication of offices; that it is crowded with matter which should be left to the Legislature; that it is so confused and complicated that the separate branches of the government are constantly invading the rights of each other; that its abundance of legislative matter renders our State Government incapable of adapting itself to varying circumstances; that it permits a convict just released from the Penitentiary to enact our laws; that its entire machinery is unsuited to our sparsely settled country; that it permits too great secrecy in Probate and Justices' Courts, and in Chamber practice; that it confines Judges to their circuits; that it is the result of a military order and not the work of North Carolinians; that it makes the Supreme Court an autocrat; and that it fosters a corrupt judiciary by popular elections.

The Amendments proposed by the Constitutional Convention of 1875, will correct these evils, and give us organic law of our own making, and suited to the wants of the people. Every voter should seriously consider these proposed reforms. They will prove an advantage—a great advantage to the country, eastern North Carolina especially. They can work injury to no one. Why should they not then meet with universal approval? It is all important that these measures be thoroughly explained and understood, so that the benefits which the State will invariably derive from them may become apparent to every unprejudiced and reasoning man in the land. Will not the speakers and writers who are advocating the Democratic cause, constantly press home to men's business and bosoms the vital importance of these measures for the improvement of our organic laws, and the relief of those who feel most heavily the grinding provisions of the Canby-Carpet-Bag-Constitution?

HOLDEN-TOURGEE LIES.

In attempting to make Gov. Vance responsible for what was done in Wilkes by Confederate troops over which he had no control, the Constitution says: "In September or October 1863, a company of infantry came up to Mr. Brown about ten o'clock in the afternoon (a most remarkable hour, by the way!). They were a detachment of the two regiments that Gov. Vance had asked for from Gen. Lee to spread terror throughout the western part of the State, and had orders (as Gen. Lee wrote to Gov. Vance) to take no prisoners among those deserters who resisted with arms the civil and military authorities." That letter from Gen. Lee to Gov. Vance, and the one from Vance to Lee asking for troops, were both written in March, 1865. The editors of the Constitution knew this, for the letters were heretofore published by them. This is, therefore, a wilful, deliberate and wicked lie. Most all of the article in reference to the disorders in Wilkes is of the same character. Price had no commission from Vance, but was himself a deserter from Lee's army.

Try again, Billy and Albion. You are old hands at lying, but you must really look at your dates.

THE New York Tribune thus indicts the Republicans for their course towards South Carolina:

"At the outset Republicans may as well face the facts. The scoundrelly government which they set up and sustained has robbed the State into pauperism. In a series of letters to the Tribune three years ago James S. Pike portrayed the masquerade of bandits in the guise of legislators so vividly that from that day to this South Carolina has been known by the name he gave it—The Prostrate State. That every honest citizen should strive to overthrow the party that inaugurated and sustained this sort of government, is not to be wondered at."

They are equally blameable for what they did with regard to North Carolina. They "set up and sustained" a scoundrelly government in this State. They put Holden, Pool, Settle and others over us.

LAST year the Radical managers attempted to alarm the tax-payers by saying the convention would cost $500,000. The State Executive Committee of the Republican party said in an address to the voters of North Carolina: "The entire expenses cannot be definitely arrived at, but it is estimated by competent judges, that it will consume as much as five hundred thousand dollars, or a years' taxes, if not a greater sum, to supply the deficiency." The actual cost of the convention was only about $35,000. What reliance can be placed upon such a party?

THE Republican party is controlled by the revenue officials, especially in Western North Carolina. These are the fellows whom Judge Watts said in his card last spring, "have for the last four or five years played the vampire upon the poor unsuspecting people of the mountains." Will the mountain boys, who have heretofore voted with the Republicans, longer follow the lead of these blood-suckers?

"More than once United States troops have been sent into States in order to keep theives in office. More than once the President has employed the army, not to protect a State against domestic violence, but to protect the Republican party against defeat."—New York Tribune.

High Republican authority. Will any North Carolinian, not lost to shame, support a party which would send troops into a State to keep thieves in office?

E. R. HAMPTON figures as a prominent leader of the Republicans west of the Blue Ridge. He is the man whom Judge S. W. Watts, Republican, said in his card of May 14, 1876, had been "publicly denounced in his own county as a horse thief." Will honest or respectable Republicans follow such a leader?

DURING the canvass of 1875, the Republican leaders declared that the convention would do away with the Homestead. This convention did its work, and the homestead was not touched. Will any man of sense trust such leaders again?

GEN. MATT. W. RANSOM is now in the mountains. He will speak this week in Buncombe, Madison and Henderson counties. He is making an active canvass, speaking almost every day.

THE National Republican says North Carolina's ten electoral votes may safely be counted for Hayes and Wheeler. This wise paper said that Indiana was safe for Ben Harrison.

CAPT. JARVIS delivered a powerful address before the Tarboro Tilden and Vance Club last Wednesday. We publish elsewhere a full account of the speaking.

STATE CANVASS.

The Democrats are sanguine of carrying Surry county by 500 majority.

Who has violated every oath taken and every pledge made?—Tom Settle.

Who betrayed the whigs, the Democrats, the Douglas men, the Confederates, Andy Johnson and the Good Templars?—Tom Settle.

People who are still on the fence are eagerly gauging the relative size of the torch-light processions in order to decide on which side to alight.

The registering business says the Charlotte Observer of a recent date, has been progressing at a livelier rate during the last few days on the part of the Democrats, but still there are numerous names of voters in the township not on the books.

The Patriot has the following about its Radical neighbor: "Mr. Ball of the State has been filling Mr. Douglas' appointments with Mr. Robbins for the past week—the Radical elector being quite ill at his room.' He is the heartiest looking sick man we ever saw."

Maj. A. C. Avery, the Eighth District Elector, has been canvassing in the counties of Polk, Rutherford, Henderson Buncombe, Madison, Yancey, Mitchel and other counties in the district, and brings the cheering intelligence that Vance will certainly gain largely on the Merrimon vote of 1872.

In speaking of local notices the Charlotte Observer says: In addition to the Kerr and Cresswell matter, there seems to be another little cause of difference in the camp. It is rumored that a certain amount of money for campaign purposes was sent to one faction, when the other faction thought it should have been sent to them.

Governor Vance will address the people of Duplin county at Kenansville next Thursday. A mounted escort, under command of J. A. McArthur, Esq. Chief Marshal for the occasion, will meet the Governor and escort him into town. A number of Assistant Marshals have also been appointed, and a band of music will be in attendance.

The Democrats of Plummerville, Robeson county, had a flag-raising on Thursday, and that several speakers were present and addressed the meeting which was held on the occasion. The pole is 65 feet high above the ground, surmounted by a rooster, and the flag six by ten feet in dimensions. The people in that section are enthusiastic for Tilden Vance and Reform.

On Monday the 6th of November, the day before the election, Hon. W. M. Robbins, the Conservative candidate for Congress in the Statesville District, will deliver an address at Mt. Mourne in the morning, and after the speaking at that place, it is the intention of the people to furnish Maj. Robbins a horse, place him at the head of the procession, and leave en masse for Mooresville, where he will speak in the afternoon of the same day.

The Goldsboro Messenger hits the nail on the head after this style:

Our Carteret county friends are cursed with several party disorganizers in the shape of independent candidates. We trust they will have the airs taken out of them on the 7th of November. The man who calls himself a Democrat and gives aid and encouragement to Radicalism in this important campaign—a life and death struggle—ought to be branded a traitor to race and party, and so treated.

We have labored long and steadily for the success of the Democratic party says the Charlote Democrat, but have never entertained as much hope for victory as we do to-day. If men claiming to be Democrats had behaved with as much prudence and discretion just after the close of the war as they are now doing, Democrats would long ago have had possession of this Government. It is very pleasant to us to know that true Conservatism is prevailing at last, and that Radicalism of all sorts is unpopular. All honor to such Conservatives as Fowle and Leach, and Vance, and Merrimon, and Jarvis and Steele, who are redeeming their State from extreme Radicalism.

MAMMOTH EFFORT OF JARVIS.

THE SLAYER OF B. Y. H. BILLY SMITH---ENTHUSES HIS TARBORO HEARERS.

Judge Howard's Handsome Introduction.

[Tarboro Southerner.]

The Court House bell called the boys from refreshments to duty on Wednesday evening. The jammed and packed condition of the hall of the Tarboro Tilden and Vance Club, evinced the great interest of the boys and the greater popularity of our next Lieut G v. Jarvis. The The genial President, Capt. S. S. Nash, whose "sister" was well the last time he heard from her, smilingly took his seat amid the proud smiles of his faithful followers. That comfortable ceremony 'roll call,' was gone through with by the model Secretaries.

JUDGE HOWARD TO THE FRONT.

That profound orator, astute statesman and level-headed politician, Judge Howard, at the request of President Nash, introduced the speaker of the evening, in a speech courteously conceived and pertinently put. He told with what eagerness we had watched the career of our favorite in the West, with what pride we had read the history of his demolition of Tin Horn Smith, and all radical speakers who had the effrontery to oppose him, &c. After which in the full stature of a man. There was ease and dignity in his deportment, grace in his gesture, and a magic magnetism in his words. The wildest plaudits greeted his appearance A thorough master of the situation, all could readily perceive why he took so colossal a stand in the West. The chief charm of Capt. Jarvis' oratory lies in his deep earnestness, his infallible deductions and his absolute imuertirbability. Cool in his reflections, quick to seize a point and utilize it, and powerful, crushing putting of the points, no wonder his adversaries were discomfitted, routed, 'horse, foot and dragoon.' Our space will not permit us to enter into details. Suffice it to say, it was one of the most effective speeches of the campaign. Every one in the vast audience firmly believed he was gazing upon the next Lieut. Governor of North Carolina, except B. B, the betting Republican man of the burg, who said when Judge H. so spoke of Capt. J., "No, I'll be d—rot if he is "

THE WEST ALIVE AND ALL RIGHT.

The speaker said the West was tired of the corrupt party and their corrupt ways. They would vote for Tilden and Vance for a change.—Eminent republicans were flocking to our standard. Colored men were forsaking the rotten radical ship.

A colored man at Durham "spoke out in meeting" while the Captain was speaking there saying he had deposited his funds with his old master until the sum of $160 was deposited, that he had listened to the beguiling blandishments of the Savings Bank Fraud managers, had placed his money there and ("you got it all out," asked the Captain.) "No, sir, I lost every d—nd cent of it, and I'm going to vote for your party."

Capt. J. said if Indiana had gone republican, Vance's majority would have been 7,700. Now, (if the election were to-morrow) it would be 11,999 and would increase 1000 every week between now and the 7th of November.

The Captain's peroration was very fine, and he sat down amidst the most enthusiastic cheering.

A Want Supplied.

[N Y Tribune.]

The American mind is active. It has given us books of fiction for the sentimentalist, learned books for the scholar and professional student, but few books for the people. A book for the people must relate to a subject of universal interest. Such a subject is the physical man, and such a book "the people's common sense Medical Adviser," a copy of which has been recently laid on our table. The high professional attainments of its author—Dr R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y.,—and the advantages derived by him from an extensive practice, would alone insure for his work a cordial reception. But these are not the merits for which it claims our attention. The author is a man of the people. He sympathizes with them in all their afflictions, effort-, and attainments. He perceives their want—knowledge of themselves—and believing that all truth should be made as universal as God's own sunlight, from his fund of learning and experience he has produced a work in which he gives them the benefits of his labors. In it he considers man in every phase of his existence, from the moment he emerges "from a ray less atom. too diminutive for the sight, until he gradually evolves to the maturity of those Conscious powers, the exercise of which furnishes subjective evidence of our immortality." Proceeding upon the theory that every fact of mind has a physical antecedent, he has given an admirable treatise on Cerebral Physiology, and shown the bearings of the facts thus established upon individual and social welfare. The author believes with Spencer, that "as vigorous health and its accompanying high spirits are larger elements of happiness than any other things whatever, the teaching how to maintain them is a teaching that yields to no other whatever," and accordingly has introduced an extensive dission of the methods by which we may preserve the integrity of the system and of times prevent the onset of disease. Domestic Remedies—their preparation, uses, and effects—form a prominent feature of the work The hygienic tratment, or nursing of the sick, is an important subject, and receives attention commensurate with its importance. Nearly all diseases "to which flesh is heir" are described, their symptoms and causes explained, and proper domestic treatment suggested. To reciprocate the many favors bestowed upon him by a generous public, the author offer his book at a price ($1 50) little exceeding the cost of publication. Our readers can obtain this practical and valuable work by addressing the author.

[For the News.

Special-Tax Bonds Bonds---Ruin Imminent.

The people do not realize the danger from special-tax bonds!

The Republican party in 1868 issued $18.090.000 of these bonds, besides $5,150,000 pronounced unconstitutional by the Supreme Court. If the opinion of Judge Settle had prevailed, much the larger part of these last would have been declared valid. (See Galloway vs. Jenkins, 63 N. C. 147.) The others have all been pronounced to be constitutional and valid by a majority of our Republican Supreme Court, Judge Settle being of that majority. (See Galloway vs. Jenkins, and University R. R. Co. vs. Holden, 63 N. C.

Settle, Holden and all the other leading Republicans stood by and winked at the issuing of these bonds. There are suits pending, Self vs. Jenkins and Belmont vs. Reilley, to force the auditor to levy the special taxes to pay the interest on these bonds. Badger and other Republican lawyers are engineering these suits.

A Republican House of Representatives of the United States passed a bill to give the United States Circuit Courts jurisdiction to issue mandamus, as original process. That was to aid in crushing the people of North Carolina. Our Democratic Senators, Ransom and Merrimon, saw this and stopped it in the Senate.

Special tax bonds are worth about 320 of $30 in the thousand with interest added from January 1st, 1869. This interest amounts to about $9,000 000

Now should a dishonest Legislature be elected, what is to hinder the buying up of the members as in 1868? You have a corruption fund of $8 800,000. There are 170 members, 86 make a majority. The owners of the bonds could pay $5,000 to each, and then get rich.

The Supreme Court of the United States has decided that bonds and coupons, receivable for taxes, must be received for taxes, and a State cannot repeal a law providing for such bonds. What is to prevent such a law being passed by a dishonest Legislature? If Settle were Governor he could do nothing to hinder it, because he believes the bonds to be constitutional. If the people have to pay the interest on the special tax bonds it will now amount to $8 00 on the $100 value of real and personal property, and hereafter to $1.00 every year, or $1,200,000 annually for the whole State. This, with the necessary expenses of the State government, would ruin the people.

Let them avoid it by voting down the Republican party at the ballot-box in November!

The Raleigh Mechanic's Club.

[Salisbury Examiner.]

The mechanics of Raleigh have organized a Tilden and Vance Club, and issued an address to their friends to turn out and help to put down the party of oppression, misrule and thievery. The address is one of the most cutting and pointed bills of indictment against the infamous Radical party we have ever seen. It will be found in another column, and the special attention of mechanics and laboring men everywhere is invited to it. We like to see the mechanics and laboring men waking up. The rotten, thieving R dical party can never be put down without their assistance, for they constitute the bone and sinew of the land—the worth, and backbone of the nation, and yet they, of all men are the greatest sufferers by the oppressive, swindling system of national banks, extortionate interest and burdensome taxes which has been fostered and enforced by the Radical party. It is indeed time the laboring men of the country were taking an active part in the public affairs. A few more short years of indifference and they will find themselves not only ruined, but bound hand and foot to the car wheels of an infamous, usurping, moneyed oligarchy. It is said that the whole annual increase of wealth in this country, which of course, comes of labor, is only about three per cent. while under the present system of Radical finance the property of the country is paying on government bonds in gold, and the National banks and other stock-jobbing and usurious money lenders throughout the country from 12½ to 18 per cent. Labor and property are paying three or four times more than what is annually made.

The Bayonet Will Fail.

[N. Y. Sun.]

Two months ago we had most excellent authority for saying that it was the purpose of the Republicans to use the bayonet in Louisiana, Mississippi, and Florida, which they believed they could carry for Hayes and Wheeler by that weapon; and in Alabama, Arkansas, and North Carolina, if they thought they saw a fair chance of success there by its instrumentality. But at that time they never dreamed of a necessity for its employment to save South Carolina —a State that they regarded as theirs beyond all contingencies.

In making these statements, we reflect the precise opinions and determinations that Grant's Cabinet and Zach Chandler's committee entertained eight or ten weeks ago. Our sources of information as to their intentions on this momentous subject about the middle of August, could hardly have been better if we had witnessed their deliberations.

Since that date these conspirators have essentially modified their programme. They quail before the rising indignation of the North at these repeated attempts to coerce the South into the support of men and measures that they detest. They have abandoned all hopes of Mississippi, Florida, Alabama, Arkansas, and North Carolina, We perhaps ought to except Florida, which they have not yet quite given up.

But the audacious, corrupt villians who aim to perpetuate the coarse, brutal policy of Grant by the election of the feeble, facile Hayes, do purpose to save South Carolina and capture Louisiana by means of violence and fraud, if they can. To secure this end they will stick at nothing within their reach.

But honor, decency, fair dealing, the Constitution and the laws, and a majority of the people, are against them; and they will fall.

A significant straw is that Morrill has determined to run against Blaine for the vacant Maine Senatorship. When Morrill went into the Cabinet it was with the understanding that he should stay there in the event of Hayes' election. A gentleman in Morrill's confidence said on Thursday, at Washington, that Morrill had already begun to lay his pipes to beat Blaine and was confident of doing it.

LEGAL NOTICES.

PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given, that under and in pursuance of the power and authority contained in that, certain deed of trust, bearing date the first day of July, eighteen hundred and seventy, and made by and between the Atlanta & Richmond Air Line Railway Company of the one part, and R. A. Lancaster, W. K. Easley and Alfred Austell of the other part, and in compliance with the directions in that behalf contained in the decree of the Circuit Court of the United States for the Northern District of Georgia, made at October Term, 1875, in a certain suit in equity therein pending, in which Skipwith Wilmer and Augustie Richard are complaints, and the Atlanta & Richmond Air-Line Railway Company and others are defendants (and in and by which decree the undersigned John H. Fisher was appointed a trustee under the said deed of trust in the place of the said W. K. Easley who was deceased, and with all of the rights, powers and authority under the said deed of trust which were possessed by the said W. K. Easley in his lifetime), and in compliance also with the decrees of the Circuit Courts of the United States for the District of South Carolina and of the Western District of North Carolina, confirming the said decree made by the Circuit Court of the United States for the Northern District of Georgia: We, the undersigned, will on the fifth day of December next, between the legal hours of sale, to wit, ten o'clock a. m. and four o'clock p. m. on that day, in front of the county Court House of Fulton county, in the city of Atlanta, in the State of Georgia, sell at public auction, the entire railway of the said The Atlanta & Richmond Air-Line Railway Company, extending from the city of Atlanta, in the State of Georgia, to the city of Charlotte in the State of North Carolina, together with all its franchises, lands, buildings, machinery, rolling-stock, materials, and other property, real and personal, wherever situated and in whatsoever manner held, and whether owned and held by the said company at the time of the date of the said deed of trust, or there after acquired.

The terms of such sale shall be as follows:

1st. The premises will be sold in one parcel to the highest bidder for cash.

2d. Ten per cent. of the purchase money of the said premises will be required to be paid to the undersigned trustees at the time and place of sale and immediately after the premises shall be struck down, and the purchaser will be required at the same time to sign a memorandum of his purchase.

3d. The residue of such purchase money will be required to be paid to the said trustees at the office of John H. Fisher, as receiver of the said railway, in the city of Atlanta, on or before the twenty six hday of December next, when and where the deed of the undersigned, for the said premises will be ready for delivery.

4th The biddings will be kept open after the premises shall be struck down, and in case any purchaser shall fail to comply with any of the terms of sale, the premises struck down to him will be again put up for sale upon the same terms of sale Provided, however, that if the holders of any five hundred and two hundred and forty-eight bonds, secured by the said deed of trust, should, at the sale become the purchasers of the said premises, it shall not be necessary for them to pay the purchase money therefor, so far as concerns the proportion thereof, which, as such bondholders, they would be entitled to receive if the net amount of such purchase money were distributed pro rata equally among all of the holders of the said four thousand two hundred and forty eight bonds; but, that in such case, the bonds held by them, with the coupons annexed thereto, shall be brought into the Circuit Court of the United States for the Northern District of Georgia, and the sale to them will be reported to the said court by the undersigned, and a conveyance by them to such bondholders will be withheld until the said Court shall give directions in relation to the disposition to be made of the proceeds of such sale

SUNDAY DISPATCHES.

The Great Hurricane--Slight Damage to American Shipping--Communication with the Interior Still Interrupted--Sugar.

HAVANA, Oct. 22.—The hurricane which visited this section Thursday night is belived to have caused less damage than that of September, but no accounts have been received from the interior so far. During its progress the American steamer Margaret went ashore, but got off without damage, and the American ship George Peabody had her cutwater slightly injured and martingale broken. There were no other accidents to American vessels. Six Spanish schooners were sunk and many more damaged by striking the wharves. The weather is now clear. The steamer City of Mexico arrived from Vera Cruze yesterday. She experienced a tremendous hurricane on Thursday and was compelled to throw overboard one hundred bales of hemp to lighten her. For twenty-three hours the officers had no hope of saving the vessel.

The sugar market opened active, relapsing into stagnation afterward, but prices were firmly sustained at last quotations. Communication with the interior is still interrupted, no knowledge has been received of the damage done to the cane by the hurricane, which it is hoped was comparatively slight, as the cane has not attained full growth. The stock in the warehouse at Havana and Mantanzas is 133,500 boxes and 4,000 hogsheads. Receipts for the week, 200 boxes and 60 hogshead; exports during the week, 22,000 boxes and 400 hogsheads includiug 1,600 boxes and all the hogsheads to the United States.

Splendid Speech to a Large Crowd.

[Special to Raleigh News.]

Gov. Vance arrived at 8 o'clock this morning and was escorted to the Lenoir House by two thousand men, with the Greenville band at the head of the procession. A large number of ladies were present. He spoke at Court House square for nearly three hours to five thousand men, women and children. His speech was one of the best of the campaign. Many Republicans renounced their party and declared for Tilden and Vance. He will leave here to-morrow for Tenton, Jones county, escorted by at least three hundred men. There will be a large Vance ball to-night. F.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Chandler and Tyner have returned.

There is no solution yet as to the reception of the Centennial address of the Irish people.

The Supreme Court of the United States to-day decided several important life insurance cases. The parties were the New York Life Insurance Company and the Manhattan Life Insurance Company against William C. Statham, Charlotte Seyms and the executor of Charles L. Beech, of Mississippi. It appears that the parties severally insured were unable to pay their premiums, owing to the breaking out of the civil war in 1861. The non-payment of the premiums in arrear was set up in bar of the actions, and the plaintiffs respectively relied on the existence of the war as an excuse, offering to deduct the premiums in arrear from the amounts of the policies. The court delivered the following opinion:

A policy of life insurance which stipulates for the payment of an annual premium by the assured, with a condition to be void on non-payment, is not an insurance from year to year like a common fire policy, but the premiums constitute an annuity, the whole of which is the consideration for the entire assurance for life, and the condition is a condition subsequent, making void the policy by its non-performance. But the time of payment in such policies is material, and of an essence of the contract, and failure to pay involves an absolute forfeiture, which cannot be relieved against in equity. If the failure to pay the annual premium be caused by the intervention of war between the countries in which the insurance company and the assured respectively reside, which makes it unlawful for them to hold intercourse, the policy is nevertheless forfeited if the company insist on the condition, but in such case the assured is entitled to the equitable value of the policy arising from the premiums actually paid. The equitable value is the difference between the cost of a new policy and the present value of the premiums not to be paid on the forfeited policy when the forfeiture occurred, and may be recovered in an action at law or suit in equity. The doctrine of revival of contracts suspended during the war is one based on considerations of equity and practice, and cannot be invoked to revive a contract which it would be unjust or inequitable to revive as where time is of the issues of the contract, or the parties cannot be made equal. The average rate of mortality is the fundamental basis of the assurance business, and this is subverted by giving the assured the option to revive their policies or not after they have been suspended by a war. Since none but the sick and dying would apply, it would be unjust to compel a revival against the company.

The Chief Justice and associates Clifford, Strong and Hunt dissented. The court reversed the decree and judgment of the Circuit Court for Mississippi, remanding the cause for further proceedings in conformity with the opinion delivered to-day.

Capt. Geo. E. Bickler has been ordered to the command of the Pensacola navy yard.

THE EASTERN MUDDLE.

No Financial Panic—A Peaceful Solution Hoped--Servian Defeats--The Russian Ambassador at Constantinople.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—The steady advance in consols and other international stocks which fell during last week's panic indicates the prevailing impression here that war is not imminent and that a peaceful solution of the Eastern question is not impossible. In the meantime fighting in the Fimok and Moravia Valley and on the Drina has been renewed with great stubbornness. General Tchemayeff telegraphs that the Turks were repulsed along the whole line but the evidence of newspaper correspondents is unanimous that the Servians were badly whipped and lost fifteen hundred men in their attempt on Satischar, and three thousand about Delegrad. According to the Standard's special the Turks have taken all the positions to within cannon shot of Djunas and very likely will take the latter, whereupon Delegrad, Alexanatz, General Tchemayeff's new headquarters at Kaonic, and the whole Moravia Valley will be in their hands. This new aspect of affairs is likely to hasten Russian action either for war or peace. Russian officers, of whom there is said to be fourteen for every Servian battalion, suffered heavily in the recent fighting.

A Reuter telegram from Belgrade says the Servians admit that the Turks captured Krevt Heights, southwest of Djunas, after three days' fighting. A Servian bulletin says, that although the position is importpant, its loss is not believed decisive, as Djunas commands the Servian line. A Reuter agent adds: "The position is critical. Russia's aid is anxiously awaited."

BRUSSELS, Oct. 23.—A special from Vienna, to the Lenard organ here of the Russian government, announces that Gen'l Ignatieff, ambassador at Constantinople, will insist on a six weeks' armistice. He is instructed to explain Russia's motives to the Porte. It is believed his representations will be moderately couched and not take the form of an ultimatum, and that the other powers will support Russia's proposals.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—A Reuter telegram from Constantinople announces that the government has discovered a conspiracy to murder Grand Vizier and Midhat Pasha, and has arrested two personages of high rank. They have been exiled to various islands. Other arrests are expected.

Religious War in Switzerland.

BERNE, Oct 23—Intelligence has been received of a fight between Liberals and Ultramontanes at Stalla, in the Canton of Tessin, in consequence of dissensions over the apportionment of representation in the Grand Council of the Cantons. Two Liberals were killed and four were wounded.

Very Important Intelligence.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—President Orton, of the Western Union Telegraph Company, has been ill several days. His physician reports his condition much improved. He has already passed the crisis of his illness.

Probabilities.

For the South Atlantic and East Gulf States, rising barometer, and clear weather will prevail, cooler north to west winds, in former, and north west winds, shifting to warmer southerly, in latter.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Sunday in the City.

The day was a bright and beautiful one, and while the church bells were ringing out their gospel invitations the streets were thronged with people. The display among the feminine portion of the population was particularly attractive. New fall and winter costumes were the order of the day and rustled in every direction, and pretty little heads tossed bewitchingly beneath jaunty hats and bonnets. The various churches were well attended, and piety seemed to be above par in all directions. Good clothes and lots of sunshine does more to fill an average Raleigh church than anything else. Neither an epidemic nor a financial panic can compare to it.

Ward Clubs.

The election is near at hand, and it is of paramount importance that Democrats should at once put themselves in a state of thorough organization. The party in the city should form ward clubs, and to bring them about meetings will be held as follows:

1st Ward—Metropolitan Hall, on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

2d Ward—Court House, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

3rd Ward—Court House, Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

4th Ward—Court House, Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

5th Ward—Metropolitan Hall, Monday evening, October 28th, at 8 o'clock.

This is arranged by order of the Democratic Township Executive Committee.

Goose Stealing.

Sunday morning John Harris, an ardent Anglo-African supporter of reform inside of the Republican party, pilfered a goose from the premises of Rev. W. A. Warwick, col. Through the vigilance of Officers Parham, Scales and Bryant this commandment breaker and Sabbath violator was brought before Mayor Manly long before the antiquated biped was cooked tender enough for even African grinders. The theft was clearly proven, and in default of a $100 bail bond John can't vote in the coming election for his particular friends, Hayes, Wheeler and Settle, for the reason of being in jail.

Dumb But Noisy.

This caption reads somewhat like a paradox, but it represents an actual fact. Sunday night a deaf and dumb colored woman got full of very loud whisky, and for awhile made Wilmington street ring with her shrill screams. For awhile timid citizens in the immediate neighborhood were very much alarmed, think from the tremendous outcry that the horrid crime of rape, or murder, was being perpetrated. The police were soon on the spot, and as a consequence the dumb damsel now sobs behind the bars of the jail, where she is to stay for the space of 30 days.

Valuable Book Presented.

Capt. Thomas H. Gillam, of Perquimans county, has presented our Supreme Court with a valuable old law book, which bears the date of 1707. This is its title page: "Cases argued and decreed in the High Court of Chancery. Printed in London by the assigns of Richard and Elward Atkins for John Walthoe, and are to be sold at his shop," Vine-Court, Middle-Temple, 1707." The book is in old English print and presents a very antique appearance, though it is in an excellent state of preservation. It is a very valuable acquisition to the library of the Court.
